3	(解答例) We shouldn't wear masks outside all the time. But when we cannot keep two meters away from other people, we should wear masks both inside and outside. From this viewpoint, when we watch a sports game at a stadium, we shouldn't speak without a mask, or we should wear it if we want to say something to somebody. In addition, we don't have to wear masks in quiet spaces where we don't speak and can keep a proper social distance. We must judge what place is appropriate rather than just following the guidelines.
